* For FY 2001-02, the Basic Foundation Allowance was actually $6,300. However, a $200 per pupil Equity Payment was subsequently built into the base for that year.

Proration occurred in FYs 2002-03 and 2003-04, which did not statutorily reduce the foundation allowance, but which reduced per-pupil funding by approximately $74 each year and is reflected here.

 For FY 2006-07, the Basic Foundation Allowance was actually $7,085, but a $23 per-pupil equity payment was appropriated and built into the base, which shrunk the gap by $23.

* This Maximum is for Bloomfield Hills, the highest per-pupil funded district with a standard-sized pupil population. (Two districts with fewer than 10 pupils have higher per-pupil allowances.)

 FY 2009-10 doesn't statutorily reduce the foundation allowance but does reduce total state funding by $154 per pupil, so the numbers shown in the table reflect the $154 per pupil cut. Sec. 20j veto is reflected.

 FY 2010-11 includes a $170 per pupil reduction in state aid funding compared to FY 2008-09 funding levels, reflected above. FY 2011-12 rolled back foundation allowances by the previous $170 plus $300 addit
