

Insurance and Financial Services

General Overview

The Department of Insurance and Financial Services (DIFS) provides regulation and oversight of State-licensed insurance companies and producers. Additionally, DIFS regulates State-chartered banks, credit unions, lenders, and other financial institutions. DIFS is the State department charged with the oversight of the Autism Coverage Reimbursement Program.

Major Divisions and Programs

Office of Insurance Evaluation
Office of Insurance Rates and Forms
Office of Consumer Services
Office of Insurance Licensing and Market Conduct
Office of Banking
Office of Credit Unions
Office of Consumer Finance
Office of Financial and Administrative Services
Office of General Counsel